

"Come & Sing Haydn's Nelson Mass", Saturday January 11th 2020, Rougemont School

USEFUL INFORMATION

How do I book a place?

Please use the Booking Form on the website: <https://stwoolossinfonia.com/> N.B. Under 18s must be accompanied by an adult.

How do I find Rougemont School?

School address: Malpas Rd, Newport NP20 6QB. Access from northbound A4051. Take last exit before roundabout. There is ample car parking. See also <http://www.rougemontschool.co.uk/>

Music – which edition?

We will use the Novello Edition. Vocal scores will be available for hire on the day at £2 (if required).

How can I practise before the day?

Here are some useful practice websites: www.cyberbass.com, www.choraline.com, www.choralia.net

What is the timetable for the day?

1030-1100 Registration

1100-1300 Rehearsal with piano (including short break)

1300-1400 Lunch

1400-1700 Rehearsal with orchestra and soloists (including break)

1700-1800 Tea

1800-1900 Public performance. Please invite your family and friends! If you'd like audience tickets, you can order them using the booking form. Tickets will be available on the day too.

Will refreshments be available?

Tea, coffee, water and biscuits will be available all day (included in your booking fee).

You are welcome to bring a packed lunch/tea. You can also buy light refreshments in the school cafeteria (e.g. hot and cold sandwiches and paninis).

Tell me about St Woolos Sinfonia

St Woolos Sinfonia is the Orchestra in Residence at Newport Cathedral . It performs regularly in the Cathedral and strives to bring classical music to the community. It accompanies choral works and this is the second collaboration with Come and Sing Cardiff. The proceeds from today will help to fund future St Woolos Sinfonia concerts. See also <https://stwoolossinfonia.com/>

Any questions?

Email: comeandsingcardiff@gmail.com

We look forward to meeting you on January 11th